

Esperanto Self-Taught, Volume 1
By William W. Mann

LibriVox

Esperanto Self-Taught Vol. 1

For the convenience of learners and the reader, this book has been divided into three volumes in the audiobook version. This is Volume 1 of William Mann's "Esperanto Self-Taught with Phonetic Pronunciation". It is part of a series of Self-Taught books written by various authors that include vocabularies of common words, elementary grammars and conversational phrases. The present volume contains thirty-seven vocabularies of common Esperanto words. If you want to learn Esperanto words or improve your Esperanto vocabulary, this volume may be of use to you. Mann writes, in the preface, that his work "supplies very full and comprehensive vocabularies of the words required by the tourist or traveller, visitor or resident abroad, health or pleasure seeker, and professional or business man, together with a large number of conversational sentences of a typical and practical character."

Length of Recording: 7 hours, 27 minutes, 49 seconds.

The image is a photograph of Ludwik Zamenhof, the creator of Esperanto. It was taken in 1887 and is, therefore, in the public domain. Cover design by Nicholas J. Bridgewater. This design is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. Read by Nicholas James Bridgewater. This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. LibriVox volunteers record chapters of books in the public domain and release the audio files back onto the net. For more information or to volunteer, visit www.librivox.org.

Esperanto Self-Taught Vol. 1